

Curriculum Vitae

Professor Vladimir Mičić, Ph.D., associate professor at Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac

Professor Mičić was born in the town of Užice in 1977. In Ivanjica town, he completed his primary school and Grammar School with an excellent final mark. He is married and has two children. He has been employed at the Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac, since 2002.

Professor Mičić graduated from the Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac in 2002, the title of the thesis being: “Just-in-time as a Contemporary Concept of Production and Inventories Management”. He defended his M.A. thesis at the Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac, in 2008, the title of the thesis being “The Adaptation of the Development of the Industry and the Industrial Policy in Serbia to the European Union’s Industrial Policy”. He defended his doctoral dissertation at the Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac, in 2011, the dissertation being entitled: “The Competitiveness of the Serbian Industry as the Presumption of Its Efficient Development”.

Professor Mičić was elected a teaching assistant-trainee and a teaching assistant in 2002 and 2008, respectively. In 2011, he was elected an assistant professor in the Economics of Industry subject, and in 2016, he became an associate professor in the Economics of Industry subject. He also teaches the Economic Development subject and has taught the Industrial and Agrarian Management subject as well. Apart from teaching in Kragujevac, he took part in the teaching process at the Departments of the Faculties of Novi Pazar and Vrnjačka Banja Spa. Apart from the basic studies, he is also engaged in teaching the Master Studies, namely in the Economics of Growth and Development subject, as well as in the doctoral studies, in the subject entitled The Theory and Analysis of Economic Development.

Professor Mičić is dedicated to a more detailed and in-depth study of the issues connected with the development of industry, the industrial policy, economic development and competitiveness. He is the co-author of the book entitled Economics of Industry. He is the author and co-author of more than 70 scientific and professional papers from within the scope of the said fields. He has presented the results of his scientific-research work done so far at scientific conferences and has published them in both domestic and international journals.

Professor Mičić has been the mentor of or a member of the Defense Committee for over 80 undergraduate dissertations and final thesis in the basic studies, as well as 40 master’s theses. He has been a member of the Defense Committee for two doctoral theses and a member of the Defense Committee for two M.A. theses.

As a researcher, he took part in the project entitled “The Creation and Maintenance of a Stimulating Working Environment in Higher Education” in 2013-2014, organized by the Research Institute Education International (EI) of Brussels. He also participated on the TEMPUS project entitled: “Rationalization of the Postgraduate Studies in Business Management and Economics in Serbia”.

He is the chairperson of the Basic and Master Academic Studies Committee and the head of the Economy study program. He is the chairman of the Union Organization of the Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac. He is a member of the Scientific Society of Economists of Serbia. He is a member of the Society of Economists of Kragujevac. He is a member of the Working Group of the National Convention on the European Union for Chapter 20 – Entrepreneurship and the Industrial Policy.