ACCA Accelerate programme for university students

How it works?

- Once university course is ACCA accredited, it's already aligned with our approach. In addition, you'll get to study towards your final ACCA Professional-level exams, if you have the correct exemptions. You should check with your course leader to see if your course has conditional or non-conditional exemptions.
- You'll enter the workplace as an ACCA affiliate. You could become a qualified ACCA member in as little as 36 months after you graduate.
- And all the while you're studying with us, you'll have access to free study resources and the ACCA Careers Job Board. You'll be part of a worldwide community of ACCA students.

ACCA-X online courses

For mobile devices download edX app and select ACCA-X - FREE courses available any time

a. Accounting for beginners

Try our introductory online courses which are six weeks long and you can study at your own pace: Introduction to Bookkeeping + Introduction to Management Accounting. These courses are broadly equivalent to GCSE level standard.

b. Already have some basic accounting knowledge?

Then enrol in our intermediate online courses which are also six weeks long and you can fit learning around your life: Intermediate Bookkeeping + Intermediate Management Accounting. These courses are broadly equivalent to A-level standard.

c. Do you have some accounting experience?

If you're ready to start training for a professional qualification then enrol on our Diploma in Accounting and Business courses. These courses are broadly equivalent to a first year of a degree programme or HND standard.

d. Interested in ACCA but not sure which level you should start?

Firstly check if you're eligible for exemptions, as you may be able to start ACCA at a higher level than what ACCA-X offers. If you have no formal qualifications then enrol on our introductory and intermediate courses.

About ACCA

ACCA is the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants and we're the world's most forward thinking professional accountancy body. We believe that accountancy is vital for economies to grow and prosper – which is why we work all over the world to build the profession and make society fairer and more transparent. Founded in 1904, we now have more than 188,000 fully qualified members and 480,000 students worldwide. They're amongst the world's best-qualified and most highly sought-after accountants – and they work in every sector you can imagine.
